FROM THE PASTOR

Parishioners,

This coming week we have tremendous feasts including St. Therese and St. Francis of Assisi. This week also includes two feast days dedicated to the Archangels, September 29th, and Angels, October 2nd.

An angel is a pure spirit whose essence is a will and a mind. (Unlike many errors of angels, they have never been human.) They are created by God with a higher nature than ours. Hence, they are more powerful and more intelligent than human beings. Yet, the good angels are God's messengers that want to help us get to heaven.

How often do we see angels visiting persons in the Old Testament and New Testament! The greatest message was that given by the Archangel Gabriel to the Blessed Virgin Mary that she would conceive and bear the God-man, Jesus Christ. The Book of Tobit recounts the Archangel Raphael healing Tobit. Raphael also intercedes for Tobit's son, Tobias, in finding his wife, Sarah. The Archangel Michael defeats the Devil in the Book of Revelation 12: 7-9.

Jesus alludes to the fact that every human person has a Guardian Angel in Matthew 18: 10-14, "See that you do not despise one of these little ones; for I tell you that in heaven their angels always behold the face of my Father who is in heaven."

A guardian angel is there to guide and guard us from spiritual evil as well as physical evil that would be detrimental to our soul. Do I ask my guardian angel for help? Do I thank my guardian angel? St. Frances of Rome saw and interacted with her guardian angel daily. St. Padre Pio conversed with his guardian regularly. He even asked him to do errands for him – like waking up the friar who was often late!

God bless,
Fr. Vander Woude

Sister Joseph Andrew Bogdanowicz, OP is one of four foundresses of the Dominican Sisters of Mary, Mother of the Eucharist in Ann Arbor, MI. She travels extensively giving talks, writes for various Catholic publications, and leads retreats for students, parishes, priests and seminarians. She has appeared in media including EWTN, Oprah, NPR, CBS, and Fox & Friends. Sister has written and compiled two volumes of And Mary's 'Yes' Continues, concerning Religious Life today. Over 28 years, the Community has grown to over 130 members, with women coming from throughout the USA and internationally. The average age of the Sisters is 37 years old. These past 2 years, Sister has been assigned as the Community's "Eucharistic and Marian Revival Preacher," an obedience that both humbles and excites her immensely!

TUITION ANGELS SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Please consider giving the gift of "Catholic Education" by becoming a Tuition Angel to help families who do not have the financial ability to pay tuition for our Preschool Program. Thanks to the generosity of parishioners, Tuition Angels program is available to any family in need of financial assistance to start the education process for their children at St. Mary's Preschool. If you are interested in contributing to the scholarship fund, please contact Miss Michelle in the Preschool Office, 703-978-4557, michelleh@stmaryofsorrows.org or stop by upstairs in our office. Any assistance would be greatly appreciated.

PARISH OUTREACH

Next weekend, we will have a second collection for Special Kids/Special Needs that will benefit Porto Charities, a non-profit organization dedicated to increasing access to diocesan Catholic schools for children with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

All proceeds will go directly to establish and advance inclusive education programs in Catholic Schools throughout the Diocese of Arlington for students with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Please consider donating to this important collection at Mass. Thank you for your kind donation.

THE CAR MINISTRY

If you have a used car to donate, please consider The Car Ministry, a charitable agency that processes and repairs donated vehicles which are given at no cost to needy families and persons who can support a car and who have been referred by pastors and social workers. These vehicles transform people's lives because transportation allows them to obtain employment in places that were previously inaccessible, and makes them self sufficient because they now have a means to get work.

Please Help Support Fairfax FISH

Fairfax FISH continues to strive to meet the challenges of assisting those in need in our community. The social and economic fallout from the COVID-19 pandemic continues to affect the community. FISH is poised and ready to serve as a direct and responsive conduit for mortgage, rental, utility, food, clothing, gasoline, and medical bills assistance. We are proud of our organization, its caring and dedicated volunteers, and our many loyal supporters throughout the community. The St. Mary's Food Pantry partners with FISH to help provide groceries for individuals and families in need in our area. For more information or to make a donation, please visit: <https://www.fairfaxfish.org/services>.

St. Mary of Sorrows Mothers' Group

Many thanks and blessings to parishioner, Kelly Pabst for leading the St. Mary's Mother's Group for many years! Kelly's leadership enabled this ministry group to provide opportunities for moms and kids to gather for support, fun, fellowship, and prayer. She is now passing the baton and we are so grateful for her years of dedicated service. If you are a parishioner mom of little ones and/or school-aged children and would like to serve as the new volunteer leader of this ministry, please contact Christina Benedi, Parish Outreach Ministry Coordinator - christinab@stmaryofsorrows.org.

Man tends by nature toward the truth. He is obliged to honor and bear witness to it: "It is in accordance with their dignity that all men, because they are persons . . . are both impelled by their nature and bound by a moral obligation to seek the truth, especially religious truth. They are also bound to adhere to the truth once they come to know it and direct their whole lives in accordance with the demands of truth." -Catechism of the Catholic Church 2467

Guardian Angels

On October 2nd we celebrate the feast of the Guardian Angels. Did you know that God has an angel specially looking after you? God gave you a guardian angel to help guard you against temptation and danger.

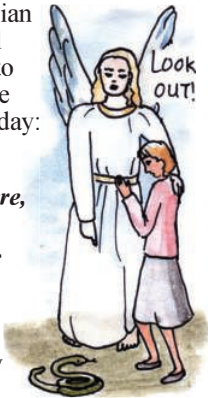

Angels are pure spirits. Even though we draw them like people with wings, they don't have bodies, so they don't take up space or move around. They can see and understand much more than we can, and they know God much better than we do, too. They are very powerful and can help us very much.

We should try to talk to our Guardian Angel every day. Thank your angel for looking after you, and ask him to keep protecting you from evil. Here is a good prayer you can say every day:

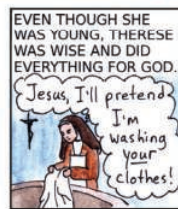

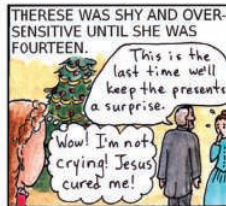

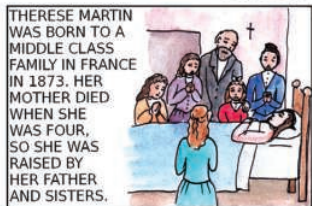

*Angel of God, my guardian dear,
to whom God's love commits me here,
Ever this day be at my side
to light, to guard, to rule and guide.
From sinful state O keep me free,
and at death's hour my helper be.
Amen.*

Answer to Word-Find: (It is better) to suffer than to sin.

Investing can reflect your values

At Edward Jones, we stop to ask you: "What causes and concerns are important to you?" By better understanding your values, we can help guide your investing to areas that match your preferences and beliefs.

Get in touch today to discuss what's really important: your values.
