PADRE'S CORNER

In case you missed last week's "Note," in summary, Sanctity of Life, Sanctity of Marriage and Religious Liberty are pre-eminent in the order given as Pope Benedict wrote in 2012 (Sacramentum Caritatis). The four principles in last week's column encompassed these three moral truths.

Then Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger (later Pope Benedict XVI) wrote in a letter in July 2004:

"Not all moral issues have the same moral weight as abortion and euthanasia.... While the Church exhorts civil authorities to seek peace, not war, and to exercise discretion and mercy in imposing punishment on criminals, it may still be permissible to take up arms to repel an aggressor or to have recourse to capital punishment. There may be a legitimate diversity of opinion even among Catholics about waging war and applying the death penalty, but not however with regard to abortion and euthanasia."

When we vote, it is good to have a crucifix in hand so as to remind ourselves that we must be loyal to Jesus first.

There is nothing wrong with being loyal to a candidate or to a political party. But there is something very wrong if one's loyalty to either is stronger than one's loyalty to Jesus Christ. If a candidate or party contradicts the platform of the Gospel and the moral law (i.e. abortion, euthanasia, embryonic stem cell research, same sex marriage), a person should have the inner freedom to depart from personal, family or community tradition and vote instead for the candidate and party that best reflect God's law.

What if there is no candidate who is totally pro-life and pro-moral law? Pope John Paul II spoke of this scenario in his encyclical, "The Gospel of Life". In such a situation, one should ask questions: Which of the candidates will do less harm to unborn children and the aged if elected? Which would ban partial-birth abortion? Which would require parental notification? Which would stop embryonic stem cell research?

In this case, it is morally acceptable to vote for the candidate who will do less harm. This is not 'choosing the lesser of two evils.' We may never choose evil. But in choosing to limit an evil, one is choosing a good – with regard to abortion, it is saving some babies' lives that would have been killed.

As we cast our votes, may our Faith guide our votes that we may not betray the Crucified Lord in one hand with the vote we make with our other hand.

God bless,
 FRVW

Voting as Faithful Citizens

September 2024

Election Day is November 5. Early voting begins September 20. As Americans, we will decide who our next President will be. As Virginians, we will also decide who will represent our Commonwealth in the U.S. Senate and U.S. House of Representatives. As faithful citizens, it is our sacred duty to form our consciences and vote.

World and national events are ever-changing and often tragically alarming. In Ukraine and the Middle East, war, violence, and immense suffering are daily realities. Across our country, extreme and dangerous proposals to expand access to abortion will appear on many states' ballots this November. Seemingly everywhere we look, a "throwaway culture" runs rampant, disregarding dignity and embracing indifference, selfishness, abandonment, and greed.

Yet, we must see beyond all the destruction and despair. The Church's timeless teachings show us how. They shine light in the darkness, providing an anchor for our enduring hope and a sure guide for the formation of our consciences.

As we have stated in previous pre-election letters, these teachings tell us that three principles must guide how we vote:

- Many issues are important.
- Not all issues have equal moral weight.
- Protecting life is paramount.

Addressing the tragedy of abortion is the "pre-eminent priority because it directly attacks our most vulnerable and voiceless brothers and sisters and destroys more than a million lives per year in our country alone" (U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, Introductory Letter).

Resources provided by the Virginia Catholic Conference explain the principles, the positions of candidates, and practical tips for voter registration. Visit www.vacatholic.org to view these materials.

Through conscience formation, prayer, and fasting, prepare your minds and hearts to engage in this year's critical voting decisions. United in the Eucharist, let us pray for one another, as Americans, Virginians, and faithful citizens.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Michael F. Burbidge
Bishop of Arlington

Most Reverend Barry C. Knestout
Bishop of Richmond

★ CONSECRATION OF THE ELECTION TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY ★

Mary Immaculate, living tabernacle of the Divinity, where the eternal Wisdom lies hidden to be adored and served by angels and men; Queen of heaven and of earth, beneath whose sway are subject all things that are lower than God; Patroness of the United States of America, sorrowful and mindful of our own sinfulness and the sins of our nation, we come to thee, our refuge and hope.

Knowing that our country cannot be saved by our own works, and mindful of how much our nation has departed from the ways of thy Son, we humbly ask that thou wouldst turn thine eyes upon our country to bring about its conversion.

We consecrate to thee the integrity of the upcoming election and its outcome, so that what is spiritually and morally best for the citizens of our country may be accomplished, and that all of those who are elected would govern according to the spiritual and moral principles which will bring our nation into conformity with the teachings of thy Son.

Give grace to the citizens of this land so that they will choose leaders according to the Sacred Heart of thy Son, that His glory may be made manifest, lest we be given the leaders we deserve.

Trusting in the providential care of God the Father and thy maternal care, we have perfect confidence that thou wilt take care of us and will not leave us forsaken.

O Mary Immaculate, pray for us. Amen.

Should We Let Others See What We Do for God?

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus warns the people about some of their leaders. They wore special clothes and made sure that people saw them giving to the poor. They also got the best seats at gatherings. These men were only concerned about outward things and not about being holy and loving in their hearts.

Our Lord wants us to be holy on the inside- to love Him and to love everybody else with our hearts. But we don't always have to show it on the outside. Sometimes we pray together or help people when others can see us, but we should often pray and do good in ways that people won't see, too.

Still, there are some people who do wear special clothes and should get places of honour. Priests and religious sisters and brothers wear clothes that help us to know that they have special jobs. They aren't trying to get attention, but it is a sign that they have given themselves to God. We treat them with extra respect because they have dedicated their lives to God.

What was the last thing Our Lord said in today's Gospel reading?
Look in the mirror to find out!

Blessed John Duns Scotus November 8

JOHN DUNS SCOTUS WAS BORN AROUND 1270 IN SCOTLAND. HE WAS A GOOD BOY AND WAS TAUGHT WELL BY HIS PARENTS AND PRIESTS.

HE HAD TROUBLE LEARNING, SO HE PRAYED TO OUR LADY. THEN HE BECAME VERY INTELLIGENT.

HE BECAME A FRANCISCAN AND CONTINUED STUDYING.

AFTER STUDYING IN PARIS AND ENGLAND HE RECEIVED HIS DOCTORATE AND BECAME A PROFESSOR.

WHEN THE KING WANTED THE PROFESSORS TO SIDE WITH HIM AGAINST THE POPE, JOHN REFUSED.

ONE OF HIS GREATEST TEACHINGS WAS THAT MARY WAS CONCEIVED WITHOUT ORIGINAL SIN.

Father John, you are being sent to Germany.

FOR POLITICAL REASONS JOHN WAS SENT TO TEACH IN COLOGNE, GERMANY. HE DIED THERE AT THE AGE OF 43.

BLESSED JOHN KNEW THAT THERE IS NOTHING MORE IMPORTANT THAN KNOWING, LOVING, AND SERVING GOD. HE HAD A GREAT THIRST TO UNDERSTAND HIM BETTER SO HE STUDIED HARD. THE MORE HE UNDERSTOOD ABOUT GOD THE MORE HE COULD TEACH OTHERS ABOUT HIM. WE SHOULD PRAY FOR GOOD TEACHERS.
