

Resources

FACETS – 703-352-5090 – Please call during business hours (9am-430pm) Fairfax – Provides daily hot meals and assistance with emergency housing needs. Also provides Hypothermia Prevention Shelter throughout the winter until April.

Fairfax County Office of Coordinated Services Planning (CSP) – 703-222-0880 – Please call during business hours. Entry point for social services, including assistance with housing, food, utilities, medical & mental health care.

Fairfax County Non-Emergency Police – 703-691-2131 – 24/7 for transportation to an emergency shelter at no cost.

Fairfax FISH (For Immediate Sympathetic Help) - <https://www.fairfaxfish.org/> 703-978-0280 Offers clothing donations 9:30am-12pm each Tue & Thurs and 1st Sat of each month. Also provides assistance with rent, utilities, gas, prescriptions, and food. Please contact CSP above during business hours for a referral to FISH.

The Lamb Center – 703-691-3178 - A daytime center in Fairfax offering hot meals, laundry, shower facilities, help with job search, transportation assistance, haircuts, support groups, medical & dental clinic, computer access, assistance in applying for Social Security benefits, and bible study groups. All food and services are free. Please call or feel free to drop in: Mon-Fri 8am-3pm & Sat 8am-12:30pm.

Fairfax Detoxification Center – 703-502-7000 – available 24/7 – provides free, short-term residential program for adults who need help to safely detoxify from the effects of drugs and/or alcohol.

Shepherd Center of Fairfax-Burke – 703-323-4788 – offers free transportation to medical appts, therapy, or rehab for senior adults ages 50 and over. Please call during business hours.

Just Neighbors – 703-979-1240 – offers immigration legal services to immigrants, asylees, and refugees with low/no income. Please call during business hours.

St. Mary of Sorrows Catholic Church – 10500 Zion Drive, Fairfax – 703-978-4141 x109 – Please call during business hours. Food pantry assistance available to those in need and help available for mothers and babies through The Gabriel Project. All are welcome for worship and fellowship. God loves you!